The word Hebri occurring in the G.O. is ~~eeer~~ a mistake for HEBRI.

necessary to issue any amendment now, however the

It is presumed that ^{the} the Janing the place might have been typed as 'HELRI'. But

The C.S.P. might have corrected it to

'HEBBRI'. A copy of the notification with the Gazette published is put up at (L). For order whether the copy of the order should be called for from the Collector as it is not available here

From the Col's Letter

3/12/55 It appears that due to a typographical error, the place has been spelt as Helri

But in the notification in the F.S.G. it has been spelt as 'HEBBRI'. It is not Clear why an amendment is necessary. For orders

3/12/55 The spelling in the notification only is important. From ^{the} Extract of the notification in the Gazette at (L) it will be seen that the ~~correct~~ name is 'HEBBRI' instead of 'HEBRI'. There seems to be no need for any amendment.
